

The wisconsin no call list should remain the same. Banks should not be granted an exception. It has been a relief to not be constantly interrupted by these unnecessary calls. If I choose not to use their services, that should be my privilege, I do not need to constantly asked to reverse my decision. Please, big brother, we are intelligent to manage our own affairs.